PROPERTY SUMMARY

A truly unique home located in an idyllic setting with outstanding open views.

This characterful stone cottage offers well presented living accommodation, ideal for a professional couple and briefly comprising; entrance hall, two bedrooms to the ground floor (one en suite) and a contemporary bathroom. To the first floor is a most attractive lounge with feature picture bow window. The kitchen is fitted with an extensive range of quality units and a stable style door leads out to delightful enclosed balcony.

Outside is a private and enclosed courtyard with planted borders and a detached single garage.

Approximately three miles south of Wakefield city centre, Newmillerdam is a conservation area and one of the most sought after village locations boasting a wide range of quality residential property and adjacent to attractive open countryside. The commuter is well served by the M1 and M62 motorways, bringing the major commercial centres to the north to within a reasonable travelling distance, whilst the Westgate train station in Wakefield is on the East Coast Mainline, providing a direct service into Leeds and London.
